NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2024

COMPETITION RESULTS

Freshwater Lake Eildon Saturday 14th – Sunday 15th September 2024

The Eildon freshwater competition was successful, with twelve adults, two Juniors, and one visitor catching 7 Rainbow trouts, totalling 22.9 kg.

The weather was challenging, with cold mornings, cloudy skies, light rain, and strong wind. There was a brief period of blue skies, then wind and light rain again. Sunday morning was cold but without rain.

Bow, Neil Kolbe's wife, caught a 6 kg Rainbow Trout at Pondage, breaking the Club record of 4.6 kg set by Tristan Billing. Members gathered for weigh-ins on Saturday and Sunday, enjoying a BBQ and all had a great time.

The Eildon competition was held in memory of Darryl Freeman, and John Bertuna scattered his ashes in the Lake.

Come to the Club early, use your Club Noble card, have a meal and a drink and gain some points and $ value on your card.

A reminder to visit our Web site and Facebook to keep up with the club.

Water safety

Learn how to stay safe around water and report marine accidents.

In an emergency

Always call Triple Zero \(000\) in an emergency.

If you require police attendance for marine incidents including Personal Water Craft (PWC) complaints, call Triple Zero \(000\).

For all other enquiries and general advice, contact the Water Police Office on \(03\) 9399 7500.

Make sure you know what to do in the event of:

- boat fires
- person overboard
- capsize and abandoning ship
- carbon monoxide fumes
- cold water immersion
- seasickness.

Reviewing and practising emergency procedures should be part of your boating habits. For more information, visit Safe Transport Victoria.

Reporting marine incidents and accidents

Under the Marine Safety Act, reportable marine incidents include:

- the loss or presumed loss of a vessel
- a collision with another vessel or object
- grounding, sinking or flooding
- a capsized vessel
- fire
- a structural failure or loss of stability
- close quarters
- a person overboard
- a vessel becoming disabled and requiring assistance
- the fouling or damaging of any pipeline, submarine cable, lighthouse, lightship, beacon, buoy or marine mark.

The Marine Safety Act requires the master to provide the following details to the police present at the scene:

- the name and address of the master
- the name and address of the owner of the vessel
- the registration or survey number of the vessel.

The master must report full details at the closest police station as soon as possible in the following events:

- any property is damaged or destroyed, and the owner, the owner's representative or police are not present
- a person is injured and no police members are present.

Northern Territory Fishing

1. Reel in a million-dollar fish

Catch a barramundi from October and you could be rewarded with more than a glory tale. The nation's richest fishing competition casts off for its 10th year in October, with the release of prize-tagged fish across the Northern Territory – including the holy grail of catches – the million-dollar barramundi. Home to the largest number of barramundi in Australia, some weighing over 20kg, and spanning more than a metre, this is the place where fishing lore is made, and a variety of tour operators are there to help you nab that once-in-a-lifetime catch. Where there are barramundi there are also crocodiles, and spring is the time to see these awe-inspiring reptiles at their most active. The jaw-dropping spectacle of an enormous saltwater croc leaping out of the Adelaide River is one of the closest encounters you'll find anywhere, all from the safety of a river boat. You could also try a far more tame encounter in the form of croc schnitty or a croc spring roll at a waterside Darwin diner. Register for your shot at barramundi riches via milliondollarfish.com.au

It's no secret the Northern Territory is home to some of the best fishing in Australia. For this season of Million Dollar Fish, there will be prize-tagged barra released into five incredible fishing regions, Darwin, Kakadu, Arnhem Land, Katherine and the Tiwi Islands.

A total of 9 red-tagged fish were recaptured in Season 9, including the elusive red tag worth $1,000,000.

All of Season 1 – 9 red-tagged fish have ceased to be active after the extended season ended on 30 April 2024 – Season 10 starts on 1 October 2024.

Season 10 registrations are now open.
